

Ally Skills Workshop handout

Terminology

If you're unsure what terms to use in order to avoid being offensive, just ask!

- Privilege: an unearned advantage given to some people but not all
- Oppression: systemic, pervasive inequality present throughout society that benefits people with more privilege and harms those with fewer privileges
- Target: someone who suffers from oppression
- Ally: a member of a social group that enjoys some privilege that is working to end oppression and understand their own privilege
- Cis: your gender is the same as the gender that was assigned to you at birth
- Trans: your gender is different than the gender that was assigned to you at birth
- Non-binary or genderqueer: "male" or "female" doesn't describe your gender accurately
- Terms to use to refer to groups of people of particular genders: men, women, non-binary people/folks, cis men/women, trans men/women, people of all genders, folks, people, everyone, all, y'all, all y'all, yinz...
- Terms for sexuality: straight, gay, lesbian, bisexual/pansexual (attracted to people of all genders), asexual (little or no sexual attraction to anyone)
- Queer: catch-all term for anyone who is not a straight cis woman or man
- Use Wikipedia to find preferred terms for racial or ethnic groups
- Avoid abbreviated forms of names of racial or ethnic groups
- Use "abled person," "disabled," or "person with disabilities"
- Only use respectfully in cases of self-disclosure: ADD/ADHD, autism spectrum, schizophrenic, bipolar, etc.
- Describe body size using neutral descriptions: "higher weight," "lower weight," "larger body," "smaller build," "medium size"
- Use "undocumented immigrant"

Terms not to use in this workshop

- "Girls" for women 18 years of age and over
- "Females" for humans - used for animals and plants too
- "Guys" for groups that are not all men
- "Ladies" - associated with "proper" (i.e., subservient) behavior
- "Transsexual" - not inclusive of all trans people
- "People with [BODY PART or CHROMOSOME]" instead of "men" or "women"
- "Ethnic" or "urban" or "from the banlieues" to mean people of a particular race
- "Lame," "dumb," "retard," "stupid," "crazy," etc., instead use "foolish," "wild," or a specific adjective like "crowded" or "disorganized"

- Don't use names of specific disabilities as metaphors or similes to indicate badness (deaf, blind, etc.) - it's fine to use figures of speech like "see what I mean" or "I hear you"
- Don't use medicalized or value-judgement terms for body size like "healthy weight," "obese," "struggles with his weight", "normal weight," "overweight," "heavy," "curvy," "big-boned," etc.
- Don't use "illegal immigrant," "illegal alien," or "illegals"
- Don't use "politically correct" in a serious or literal way - it is a derogatory label created to criticize and deride the concept of "treating people with respect"

Workshop discussion guidelines

- You may leave or return at any time, for any reason, without explanation
- Please don't repeat sensitive things, or anonymize them if you do
- Focus on what an ally can do in this situation, not the target
- Avoid rules-lawyering - there are no trick questions
- Speak respectfully about religious or spiritual beliefs
- Don't use stereotypes about people with working class jobs (e.g. janitor)
- Don't use stereotypes based on adults of particular ages
- Don't use stereotypes based on family role (mother, grandparent, etc.)
- Treat caregivers of all sorts respectfully, especially mothers

Guidelines for responding to oppression

- Be short, simple, and firm
- Humor usually backfires, avoid it
- Pick your battles
- Play for the audience
- Practice simple responses
- Don't be sexist, homophobic, transphobic, racist, ableist, classist, ageist, body-shaming, or make fun of people for being sexually undesirable, unattractive, etc.

Guidelines for future ally work

- Don't expect praise and credit for fighting inequality
- Follow and support leaders from target groups
- Assume people from target groups have more knowledge about their oppression and wait for invitation to help or explain
- Follow your discomfort - if something makes you feel bad, find out more and understand why before reacting
- When you make a mistake, apologize and move on

Resources

Part of supporting marginalized groups is making a continuous, on-going effort to educate yourself and change your behavior. Here are some resources to help get you started:
